Sabine Hauswirth

Developer & Idea- and Innovation Expert

Sabine Hauswirth is an innovation and business expert. Passionate about empowering and connecting people, technology, creativity and business. She is a developer of Life Time Models and Future Concepts that enable wellbeing at work, lifelong work design and innovation culture. She explores the Future of Work and the impact of digital transformation on individuals, organizations and society. She is a strong ambassador for training of innovation culture to create Corporate Think Tank – and particularly encourages female talent to pursue a career, even if it is late in their lives and over the 50ies or 60ies– as she believes a diverse and happy life design and workforce is she a key driver for business development. As an ambassador for wellbeing at work, she explores new life time models and future concepts and ways of working that address the needs of current and future generations of employees. She writes about the human side of business and the integration of different jobs into lifetime and develops concepts how to integrate wellbeing and innovation processes into the future of work, the science of happiness, and how wellbeing and diversity can drive success.
